

For Whom It May Concern:

Noelia Martin has been teaching Spanish to my two daughters, aged 12 and 15, for over 1 year.

She very thoroughly prepared my older daughter for her IGCSE in Spanish and this Summer she achieved an A* grade as a result.

We have always found Noelia to be incredibly enthusiastic, well-prepared, knowledgeable and able to communicate her native language in an interesting and stimulating way.

It can be tough for children to have to do extra tuition after a long day at school, but my children have always been enthusiastic to go to her classes.

Noelia is now preparing my 12-year-old for her GCSE Spanish, which she will take in summer 2018.

I would thoroughly recommend Noelia as a Spanish teacher.
