

Reference Noelia Martín Benitez

I have known Noelia for around two years and she has attended St Pancras Church during that period. She is a well presented, enthusiastic and friendly member of the congregation. She has an excellent grasp of English and a lively and bubbly personality.

Her primary reason for coming to the UK was to secure a job and she has worked tirelessly in pursuing this. She is very well qualified but the economic situation in Spain has meant that securing a permanent job has proved elusive. She is though determined and hard working and in my opinion would be an asset to any team. Over the years she has helped at church based activities for children and she has a wonderful way of relating to both children and their parents.

Noelia is honest and a person of integrity. She has integrated exceptionally well into life in Sussex. I am happy to commend her to you without reservation.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mark S. Payne". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above a long, horizontal, slightly curved line that extends to the right.
